Project Orion: Project Charter

Meridian Dynamics Inc. — Internal Document

Project Overview

Project Orion is an infrastructure modernization project consolidating regional data centers into a unified cloud network. The project is owned by the Information Technology department and sponsored by Suresh Pillai.

Deepak Nair serves as the project lead, coordinating a team consisting of Ravi Shankar, Pooja Agarwal.

Systems and Tools

Project Orion relies on ServiceNow, Okta SSO, Meridian VPN Gateway as its core systems. ServiceNow is maintained by the Information Technology department. Okta SSO is maintained by the Information Security department. Meridian VPN Gateway is maintained by the Information Security department.

Status and Governance

Progress on Project Orion is reviewed monthly by Suresh Pillai and reported to the Information Technology department's leadership team. Documentation is maintained in Confluence and tasks are tracked in Jira where applicable.